

SVDP SOCIETY OF MILWAUKEE

WE HELP PEOPLE

IN OUR PARISH AND IN OUR COMMUNITY

AT THE HEART
OUR HISTORY

“What is your church doing today?” In 1833, young college student Frédéric Ozanam and five friends responded by creating the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. The Society is represented in Milwaukee County in 44 parishes including our own!

FROM THE HEART

VISITS TO THOSE IN NEED

We represent our parish by assisting individuals and families in crisis. Help is provided with needs such as food, personal or household items through person-to-person contact. We meet regularly as a group to pray together and in support of each other for the services we provide.

TO THE HEART
